

Information security policy

The goal of the information security in the company is to ensure adequate security of the company information and also security of the information entrusted by our customers and the business partners in accordance with business interests and needs of the company and to prevent unauthorized usage of information in all form.

The information security in the company is based on effective a reliable system of managing security of information, built on ISO/IEC 27001:2013 standard as an integral part of existing managing system of the company.

Main goal of the information security management system is to effectively eliminate or minimize risks linked to possible violation of the integrity, availability and credibility of the information. The security measures and actions are chose depending on analysis of risks handling to ensure maximal efficiency of the system.